Change of Address List
Who to Notify

Update these 14 places when you move, or your mail and your money keep going to the old address.

1. USPS
   Use the official change-of-address service for mail forwarding. ☐
2. Your employer and payroll
   Needed for pay stubs, tax forms and benefits. ☐
3. Banks and credit unions
   Update checking, savings and loans. ☐
4. Credit cards
   Update the billing address and ask about any card on file. ☐
5. Insurance
   Renters, car, health and life policies. ☐
6. Driver's license and vehicle registration
   Check your state's rules and deadlines. ☐
7. Voter registration
   Update it in your new state or county. ☐
8. The IRS and tax records
   Update your address for tax mail and refunds. ☐
9. Doctors, dentist and pharmacy
   Transfer records or find new providers. ☐
10. Schools or childcare
    Update the address and ask about transfers. ☐
11. Utilities and internet
    Close or move the old accounts. ☐
12. Subscriptions and memberships
    Gym, magazines and meal kits. ☐

13 Online accounts and shopping
Amazon, delivery apps, PayPal and similar. ☐

14 Friends, family and the landlord
Share the new address and a forwarding contact. ☐